

THE GREATER TENNESSEE CHAPTER OF
THE APPRAISAL INSTITUTE PRESENTS

FALL REAL ESTATE SYMPOSIUM 2018

NOVEMBER 2, 2018

SEMINAR DESCRIPTION: This seminar provides an opportunity for real estate appraisers, brokers, mortgage lenders, and attorneys to meet their professional peers, during an open discussion forum, facilitated by a discussion leader and covering several current real estate topics.

LOCATION

TOPGOLF
500 Cowan St
Nashville, TN 37207

The Fall Real Estate Symposium 2018 is approved for 7 hours of CE for: Real Estate Appraisers, Brokers and Attorneys

The cost is $100.

SCHEDULE

Breakfast & Registration • 8:00 AM

Seminar • 9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Happy Hour event • 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM

For an additional fee, attendees may attend the happy hour event. The cost is $40 and includes 2 hours of golf, heavy hors d'oeuvres, tea and water. (Adult beverages will be available for purchase but are not included in the $40 fee)

SPEAKERS

Randy Button | MAI, SRA, AI-GRS, Facilitator

Tony Giarratana

Giarratana, LLC, Developer in Nashville
"Urban Housing: Meeting the Challenges of Developing for the Poor, Workforce, & Affluent"

John Schroer

Commissioner of Transportation for the State of TN
"Autonomous Vehicles and the Nashville Landscape"

Philip Seagraves/Stuart Fowler

Head of RE Econ at MTSU; Associate Professor at Dept of Econ and Finance, MTSU
"20 Years of Behavioral Finance Research: Implications for Real Estate Valuation"

J. David Wicker

Commercial Real Estate & Finance Attorney at Stites & Harbison
"Beyond Metes and Bounds: A Guide to Title Reports"

Mike Hendren

Chief Credit Officer for Commercial Lending, Pinnacle Bank
"One Banker's Perspective: Market Fundamentals, Underwriting Metrics, and Bank Regulatory Pressure Points"

Rob Lowe, Jr.

CCIM and Senior Managing Director for Cushman & Wakefield
"Office Activity in Nashville - Tenants, Development, & Unemployment Rates"

Register for class and golf online at www.tnappraiser.org

Sponsorship opportunities are available.

For more information, contact

Myra Pitts, Executive Director • myra@tnappraiser.org

Greater Tennessee
Chapter